

PLATTE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

NOW HIRING

Part Time or Contract

9-1-1 COMMUNICATIONS OFFICERS

GENERAL DUTIES – 9-1-1 COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

The Platte County Sheriff's Office operates a 9-1-1 PSAP in Platte City which provides dispatch services for 23 public service agencies serving Platte, Clay, Clinton, and Buchanan Counties. 9-1-1 Communications Officers are primarily responsible for answering emergency and non-emergency calls, operating two-way radio communications to answer questions and dispatch appropriate law enforcement, fire department and emergency medical department units/staff. 9-1-1 Communications Officers are also trained to provide Emergency Medical Dispatch (pre-arrival instructions) and coordinating first responders from multiple jurisdictions/agencies. This position uses computer-aided dispatch devices/programs for record keeping and management. No prior experience is necessary as this work follows established procedures with instruction/training being given upon initial employment.

An employee in this position regularly assists other personnel within the Sheriff's Office and other public service agencies/officers. Individuals in this position strive to accomplish the mission of the Platte County Sheriff's Office in each duty performed. Work is performed under general supervision within established policies and procedures; however, a high degree of independent judgment is regularly required.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

The Platte County Sheriff's Office is offering trained certified dispatchers $30.00 / hour for part-time or contract employment (No Benefits).

ABOUT PLATTE COUNTY MISSOURI

Platte County is located in beautiful northwestern Missouri and is part of the greater Kansas City metropolitan area. Platte County is approximately 427 square miles in size and has a population of approximately 107,000. Along with the unincorporated areas, Platte County also contains the communities of Parkville, Riverside, Platte City, Weston, as well as parts of the City of Kansas City. Platte County is home to the Kansas City International Airport (KCI) and contains 3 major interstate highways. Platte County is one of Missouri's fastest growing counties for both residential and commercial development while still having top rated school districts.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be 18 years of age and a U. S. citizen or lawfully authorized alien worker.
- Must have a high school diploma or GED.
- Must Possess a valid Driver's License.
- Must not have been convicted of any felony offense, domestic violence crimes, or other crimes that would make the applicant unsuitable for employment.
- Must be willing and able to perform all the tasks required of the job for which you are applying.
- Must be willing to have a criminal history and driver's license check performed annually, at a minimum, and more frequently if needed.
- Must successfully complete all pre-employment interviews and tests.

HIRING PROCESS

The Platte County Sheriff's Office is offering an abbreviated screening process for qualified applicants:

- Employment Application
- Personal History Questionnaire
- Current Employment Verification

Additional testing/process as necessary