 POLICE DEPARTMENT

Committed to Excellence

WHY HOLLIS?

Our Department

The Hollis Police Department consists of seventeen full-time police officers, one part-time police officer, and three civilian employees. Our rank structure consists of a Chief, one Captain, one Lieutenant, two Sergeants, one Detective, and ten Patrol Officers. We are a full service, 24-hour-a-day department, serving a community of more than 8,300 residents.

Our Community/ Our Agency

Our department believes that community engagement is one of the most important aspects of our role as public servants. As a nationally accredited law enforcement agency, we strongly believe in being accessible, approachable, and accountable to those we serve. Public trust is the bedrock upon which our agency is built, and we are fortunate to enjoy a high level of community support.

A November 2021 article published by Consumer Affairs listed Hollis as the safest mid-size community in the State of New Hampshire?
