CHIEF'S MESSAGE

The Argyle Police Department is excited about the challenge of serving our community. We are committed to developing officers who are well trained and empowered to make a difference each day.

Our strategies are rooted in 21st century law enforcement principles. Our response to resistance options include multiple levels of less-lethal force and our policies are aligned with our role as community protectors. Several members of our team are instructors in less-lethal force options, de-escalation and procedurally just policing.

We serve a highly supportive community that openly embraces the men and women of our department. In return, we strive to provide the highest level of police service. The strength of our organization is our team concept, and we are looking for individuals who, like us, place "we" before "me" in their dealings with fellow officers and citizens.

- Emmitt R. Jackson, Chief of Police
