- Proof of US Citizenship
- Proof of residency in New Jersey
- Proof of valid New Jersey driver's license with less than 3 points
- Ability to read, write and speak the English language well.
- Have not been convicted of any criminal or moral turpitude offense.
- Is sound in body and good health
- Successfully pass a drug screening test.
- Applicants must successfully present themselves in a manner determined satisfactory in an oral interview given by the Personnel Review Committee.

SLEO I officers are responsible for various support functions, including: Traffic direction, parking enforcement, managing pedestrian crossings, security at special events, security for municipal buildings and properties, arrestee processing and detention management, detainee transportation within municipal facilities and community notifications.

SLEO I officers are authorized to perform routine traffic details, issue summonses for municipal ordinance and parking violations. In addition, they are permitted to use handcuffs and other restraining devices. However, they are prohibited from carrying or using firearms and are not designated as primary response personnel.

The "New Jersey First Act," N.J.S.A. 52:14-7 (L. 2011, Chapter 70), requires new public employees to reside in the State of New Jersey within one (1) year of employment. The Chesterfield Township Police Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to inclusive hiring and dedicated to diversity in our staff. We strongly encourage people from all groups and communities to apply.
