Dear Applicant:

Thank you for considering the Danbury Police Department as your choice for a career in law enforcement. We are building an organization of outstanding individuals focused on excellence in everything we do. We are proud to serve a diverse community within a city rich with historical significance, dating back to 1684.

For the career-minded law enforcement officer, the Danbury Police Department offers the following:

- Competitive wages and benefits
- Continuing education incentives including tuition reimbursement
- A multitude of opportunities for career enhancement in a full-service police department
- Use of the latest in police equipment and technology, including a new headquarters building
- Outstanding community support
- Satisfaction from "making a difference," one person at a time

Review our recruiting media and examine our standards. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Alan D. Baker
Chief of Police
