Police Officer Recruitment and Employment

The City of Stamford is now accepting applications for the position of Police Officer. This position is general duty police work involving responsibility for the protection of life and property; the prevention, detection and investigation of crime; and for maintaining law and order. Assignments are received from superior officers and are carried out in accordance with established police rules and procedures. Police Officers must use their own judgment and act without supervision in meeting emergencies.

Minimum Qualifications

In order to be considered for employment as a police officer with the Stamford Police Department, applicants must:

- Be a U.S. Citizen
- Be at least 21 years old at time of appointment (applicants who have not reached their 21st birthday will be able to take the written test, but will not be considered for appointment until their 21st birthday).
- Have a high school diploma or equivalency
- Have a valid Motor Vehicle Operator's license (upon hiring)
- Have no Class A misdemeanor or B misdemeanor criminal convictions or any act of perjury or false statement.
- Have no felony convictions
- Must be of good moral character and reputation.
- Meet or exceed the Cooper Institute 50% Physical Performance Standard in the four basic tests of the pre-employment Physical Ability Assessment to obtain a Complete Health and Injury Prevention (CHIP) Card.
- Must meet department medical standards for Police Officer Candidates.

Residency Points

The City of Stamford wishes to promote the recruitment and hiring of city residents. To this end, residency points are awarded. Candidates requesting residency points must provide proof that they have been domiciled in the City of Stamford, Connecticut for a period of at least 12 months prior to the date of the receipt of application for the entry level police officer exam.

Veteran's Points

Veteran's points will be added to a final passing score (maximum score=100 points) to veterans who have completed active military service with an honorable discharge or a discharge under honorable conditions. Form DD-214 is required to verify military service and the right to receive veteran's points.

Benefits

The City of Stamford employee benefits include:

- Health, Dental and Vision Insurance
- Defined Benefit Plan
- Vacation, Sick and Personal Leave Time
- Deferred Compensation

INFORMATION CONCERNING STAMFORD RESIDENCY POINTS

Police Officer applicants who intend to apply for five (5) residency preference points must read this information entirely before completing the Residency Credit Application and Affidavit.

In order to qualify for five (5) points residency credit in accordance with Ordinance 1178, the Human Resources Division requires that you attest and provide irrefutable evidence to substantiate that you have been domiciled in the City of Stamford, Connecticut for a period of at least 12 months prior to the date of the receipt of application for the entry level police officer exam.

For purposes of this application, “domiciled” is defined to be “that place where an individual has his/her true, fixed and permanent home, where he or she normally eats and sleeps and maintains his or her normal personal and household effects.” Applicants’ who have a permanent home in Stamford, but resided elsewhere during some or all of the required time period for the sole purpose of attending school or ordered U.S. Military Service will qualify for Credit.

Residency points will be awarded only to candidates who submit a timely, signed, Residency Credit Application and Affidavit and achieve a passing score on the examination.

DOCUMENTED PROOF OF RESIDENCY MUST BE PROVIDED AT THE TIME OF APPLICATION.

Documents that may be submitted in support of a residency claim include, but are not limited to, a copy of a lease or mortgage in the candidates’ name plus one of the following (also in the candidates’ name): cable TV, electric, gas, oil, telephone or water utility bill; checking or savings account statements; or credit card statements.

The City of Stamford reserves the right to accept other documents, in lieu of the above, under special circumstances, which substantiates living arrangements, such as residing with parents, etc., as determined by the Human Resources Division. REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST PROVE RESIDENCY OVER A PERIOD OF TIME. Therefore you will be expected to produce documentation as described above.

Insufficient, incomplete, improper or untimely documentation will result in the denial or forfeiture of residency credit. Evidence is subject to additional verification during the post job offer background check. As in the case of any intentional misrepresentation of a material fact on an employment application, candidates who are determined to have intentionally misrepresented or falsified facts concerning Stamford residency shall be disqualified or dismissed. The decision of the Director of Human Resources in all related matters is final and not subject to appeal.
